ABOUT ME

Hello! My name is Rostislav. I am 21 years old. Right now for me programming is just a hobby, that i am really passionate about and hope to achieve great lengths with. While i am just at the beginning of the complicated and thorny path of the frontend developer i believe that i will become a great specialist in this field in no time!

EDUCATION

Lviv National Medical Univeristy

2017 – 2022

I am yet to graduate as a Master of Pharmacy and this is my last study year. Even through i am still a student i am already well known as a great example of a hard-working and diligent person.

MY WEBSITES

While i was training my JavaScript skills i made some websites that i would like you to check out:
